I regret to say that for the next 3 months it will be difficult for me to attend our meetings and our other activities. Illness, a vacation, and my daughter's September wedding are all looming. I think it would be best if I resigned from the Commission at this time. I just will not have the ability to commit to the activities necessary to be a valuable member. I appreciate the opportunity to serve. Perhaps in the future I will be more available for this important commitment.

Best wishes!

Dear Commissioner Anthony:

Please accept this as my official letter of resignation from the Ingham County Equal Opportunity Committee effective July 13, 2014.

Thank you for the opportunities for professional and personal development that have been provided to me during this last year and a half via this important committee. I have enjoyed working alongside you and a group of dedicated community leaders and appreciate the support provided to me during my time with the committee.

My decision to step from the committee was finalized after long and careful consideration of many factors. I regret leaving amazing colleagues and a dynamic committee. I feel that my contributions to the Ingham County Equal Opportunity Committee and Ingham County have been positive and valuable.

I will make sure to close out on pending items, such as forwarding any and all annual report department forms that are sent to me. I have completed my portion of the EOC Annual Report and regret that I will not have the necessary time to put the report together, since that was not originally my responsibility. Should you need me to close out any other pending items, do not hesitate to contact me directly. I look forward to continuing to work with you on other projects and initiatives.

Again, it has been a pleasurable learning experience work with you as part of the Equal Opportunity Committee and I will continue to work relentlessly to ensure that equal opportunity, diversity, and equity continue to be at the cornerstone of my work.
