f. Presentation: The Transformation of Health Care Delivery

Dr. Branch Canady provided a handout detailing the concepts that have been discussed in the recent past. She stated the content targets on Patient Centre Medical Home (PCMH), Electronic Medical Records (EMR), Medical Coding, Medicaid eligibility, Dual Diagnosed Patients, and Accountable Care Organizations.

Dr. Branch Canady explained the goal of the PCMH is to assure patients are receiving quality care in a way that facilitates partnerships between the patient and provider with the understanding it is driven by incentive payments and penalties. She also noted that HRSA requires all 330e Grantees (FQHCs) to be certified by 2014.

Ms. Brinson explained the impact of incentive based payments in the next three years summarizing the value of same day appointments, access to records, patient portals, measuring outcomes and communication.

Ms. Brinson explained the changes and challenges with the electronic medical records. She discussed in general a patient’s chart, follow-ups, referrals, prescriptions, as well as, insurance carriers, Medicaid and Medicare. She expressed her concern that the ICD Codes have been revised from approximately 1,800 codes to 100,000 codes. She explained that because of the changes she expects there will be a need for on-going training providing the example of doctors who use the system approximately once a month and resident turnover. Dr. Branch Canady noted that the providers are also working with different software at different locations. There was a discussion of software compatibility with different entities, the state and nationally. Dr. Branch Canady explained the need and struggle with software patches to enable compatibility stating the process is complex. Ms. Brinson noted there have been licensing and programming challenges.

Comm. Schor asked if the DISH payment is being reduced and is it part of the health care law. Ms. Brinson answered yes and explained costs and reimbursement.

Dr. Branch Canady advised the Committee there is a delay in appointments because of capacity and with the anticipated increase in population she has considered increasing hours; however, at some point there will be a need to expand location.

Ms. Brinson explained that dual diagnose patients are the most complex patients in the system because of the coordination of two payment sources and the need to partner with CMH. She clarified that although complex it is a better model to co-manage patients and the State Medicaid Office is looking to combine the two payments into one. She advised the Committee that in the next three months they would be reading about this in the newspaper; however, nothing has been worked out at this time.
Ms. Brinson explained the Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs) is a network of providers held accountable for the cost and quality of care delivered to patients, in addition to, being paid differently for coordinating care. The payment goes through the network and is distributed based on outcome. She noted that FQHCs would not be considered an ACO although it is something the County should monitor and Sparrow would likely take the lead as ACO.

Comm. McGrain stated that he would like to see more information in this format in future presentations and asked the Health Department to keep the Commissioners up to date on the changes going into 2014. Comm. Dougan asked if the electronic medical records would be retroactive expressing his concern of a massive amount of data entry or scanning. Ms. Brinson explained that the most vital and relevant information would be scanned into the EMR giving the examples of diagnosis, medication and health history. She agreed it is a massive amount of scanning and it will take approximately two years. Dr. Branch Canady stated this transition is ongoing while providing quality care.

Comm. Tennis expressed his concern of the expenses associated with the EMR component of the Affordable Care Act and asked if eventually money would be saved. Ms. Brinson stated it does not change the structure model but how records are kept. She explained the staff will have a different skill set to facilitate the use of the EMR. She explained the efficiency will be found by not duplicating tests such as a MRI and medications prescribed. There was a discussion of the coding.

Chairperson Nolan stated she specifically chose to be on this Committee and is excited about the forthcoming changes. She asked the Committee to bear through a whole education process that will include PowerPoints, tours of clinics, and meetings with consultants on Federal Law. Ultimately it translates to a better understanding the needs of the Health Department so that the Committee is knowledgeable to communicate to fellow Commissioners.

3. Calendars

The Human Services Committee will meet February 21, 2012 from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm in Conference Room D & E of the Human Services Building for a presentation by Ms. Cindy Prokof, Federal Consultant.

Hope on Friday, March 23, 2012 at 10:00 am then travel to the adult center located at Sparrow (approximately 11:00 am). Ms. Brinson will provide a room at Sparrow for questions and answers after the tours.

Ms. Brinson will send Ms. Bennett an itinerary of the events to forward to the Commissioners.

Announcements

Comm. McGrain informed Ms. Brinson he had been out of town and will respond to her email tomorrow and confirm.
Ms. Brinson stated that the Cristo Rey Clinic will be shutting down in 90 days because of financial problems.

Comm. Dougan noted that Board Chairperson Copedge made a good point that the tours and presentation should be posted as open meetings. Chairperson Nolan agreed.

Subject: JIFF 2011-12 AWARD LETTER

Dear Stefanie,

Thank you for your involvement with the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Education for 4-H Jump Into Foods and Fitness project, which runs through September 30, 2012. As you know, JIFF is a hands-on nutrition and fitness program designed to help youth ages 8 to 11 make healthier nutrition and physical activity choices; this puts JIFF programming in strong alignment with the MSUE strategic priority area of “promoting healthy lifestyles.” We have a strong history of working with teens as teachers of younger youth around the JIFF curriculum concepts.

Here’s the initial information you shared regarding your involvement:

Project Contact Person: Stephanie Reuter

Project Delivery Sites and Estimated Reach (project audiences must be from schools with 50% or greater free and reduced lunch or in communities in census tracts where greater than 50% of the population is below the 185% poverty level):
Wexford Community School – 15-20 youth
TLC Group Home – 10 youth
Lansing Parks and Rec
(Foster Community Center after-school program with students from Bingham Fairview, & Post Oak School 40 youth
Gier Community Center after-school program with students from Gier Park School – 15-20 youth
South Side Community Center – 20 youth
Lettis Community Center – 20 youth)
Cavanaugh Elementary; Cumberland Elementary; Wainright Elementary; 80 youth
S. Side Community Coalition – 50-60 youth
Boys and Girls Club South – 20-40 youth

County Mini-Grant to Support Programming: $7,300.65 (which could be used to support project implementation costs such as educational supplies and stipends for teen health educators)

At the state level, we will provide JIFF training, mini-grants, evaluation support, connections to other curricula, and ongoing technical support.

Please keep the following in mind as we move ahead:

Audience: Please feel free to work with additional project audiences using the resources (inkind and mini-grant) allocated for this project as long as the audiences fall within these guidelines: project audiences must be from schools with 50% or greater free and reduced lunch or in communities in census tracts where greater than 50% of the population is below the 185% poverty level. We will be asking you to report on your work with these audiences. (See “Reporting” below.)

Teens as educators: We’ve had good experiences involving teens as teachers of the JIFF curriculum, and we are putting together some guidelines for recruiting and supporting teens in this role. In the past, some counties have opted to use a portion of their mini-grants to pay the teens. See the “Project Expenses” section below for information on the best method for paying teens.

4-H Participation Fee: Because this program focuses on low-income audiences, Julie Chapin has given permission to waive the 4-H participation fee for participants.

Evaluation:
- For 8- to 11-year-olds: As you work with the JIFF audience, please use the “JIFF Sound-Off Survey” that’s included on pages 138-139 of the Jump into Foods and Fitness curriculum. Plan to have the kids complete the survey as a pre-survey at the beginning of their JIFF experience and as a post-survey at the end of their experience. As soon as you have a set of completed pre- and post-surveys, mail them to B’Onko so our student can input the data. Please enclose your name, county and the name of the group. We’ll provide an evaluation summary for you with your results.
- For younger youth: If you are working with youth younger than age 8, consider using the “Secret Messages for JIFF the Joey” activity on pages 140-144 to assess their learning.
- For teens: Over the past two years, we’ve done end-of-project phone interviews with a sample of teens who worked as educators for JIFF and we’ve asked them about impacts related to both nutrition/fitness knowledge and behaviors and life skills knowledge and behaviors. We will be asking you for contact information for these teens as the year goes on. You should submit their name, phone number and best time to reach them.

Project conference calls: We would like you to plan to participate in project conference calls scheduled for the following dates and times (specific information will be sent prior to the calls):
- February, 2012 (specific date TBA) – topics: training and questions related to project continuation or start-up; volunteer hours; ongoing support in promoting health and well-being; dates/times for future conference calls
- July 2012 (specific date TBA) – topics: project evaluation; summer programming; FY13 opportunities
- August 2012 (specific date TBA) – topics: project wrap-up; future opportunities

Reporting: For each of your sites, we will need you to keep track of the following information for project reporting: location and type of delivery site; description of targeted audience; total number of participants / percentage qualifying for free/reduced lunch; description of educational methods; a project success story. The template for this report is attached. Please submit your report when you have completed your total project (and no later than September 30, 2012).

Project expenses:
Your county’s mini-grant amount is listed above. This mini-grant can be used on materials and supplies to support your project programming and to pay teen educators is you opt to do that. Here’s what the mini-grant can cover:

- Food: perishables for food demonstrations, only sample or tasting size portions, no meal size portions. In other words, please make use of grant dollars to provide healthy snack food samples that are associated with the nutrition education in JIFF; funding for a pizza meal at a meeting would need to come from another source.

- Supplies: may be "project supplies" but not "office supplies" since SNAP-Ed does not pay for general office supplies, only those items used specifically for SNAP-Ed project, which may include paper, toner, etc., in order to provide SNAP-Ed handouts or SNAP-Ed reports

- Literature/materials: such as the purchase of food or fitness guide MyPlate materials for kids/families

The mini-grant cannot be used for items including bottle deposits, equipment and phones. If in doubt, contact B’Onko.

Your county should make any purchases up front and campus will reimburse your county office. Please submit a Direct Payment Voucher Form, along with originals of receipts. (The form can be downloaded at http://ctir.msu.edu/Download.aspx) Have your CED sign and date the DPV in blue ink. Keep a complete copy of the form and receipts for your file. Send the original form and receipts to B’Onko.

Paying teens: Because we’ve had some challenges getting teen educators paid through this grant in the past, we have been advised to have counties pay teens as on-call temporary employees.

These programs provide primary medical care to Ingham County’s child and adolescent population.

In July 2011, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration announced a Notice of Grant Award in the amount of $499,599 for the period of July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2013 to the Ingham County Health Department. The Notice of Grant Award approved the following projects: Alteration and Renovation of Willow Health Center, Alteration and Renovation of Otto Community Health Center and an Equipment Project.
